Alan Dorn joins GAD

Alan Dorn has joined the Government Actuary's Department to join the GAD team which provides advice to Government on Public Sector pensions. An actuary and pension consultant, Alan worked at Watson Wyatt before joining GAD and, before that, he was in the benefits consulting team of PriceWaterhouseCoopers. He qualified as a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries in 1999.

"I am excited to be joining GAD at a time when pensions are never out of the news, and I look forward to helping GAD continue to advise Government on such an important issue," said Alan.

Government Actuary, Trevor Llanwarne, comments, "We are delighted to welcome Alan, and I am confident that his knowledge and experience will help us meet the continuing demand for our services from the Public Sector."

Government Actuary's Department

The Government Actuary's Department (GAD) is an actuarial consultancy which has been working within government for almost a century. GAD offers actuarial services to governments and public sector organisations, in the UK and around the world, covering pensions, social security and insurance. Based in London, GAD employs 120 people, of whom 50 are qualified actuaries.
